Happy Christmas

Today Ben and his classmates celebrated Christmas together. They decorated their classroom with colourful balloons.

Mary gave a present to Miss Chan. She felt happy. Some children shared their food together.

Then, the children played musical chairs happily. Suddenly, Susan pushed Paul. He hurt his leg and cried loudly. Finally, Susan said sorry to Paul and comforted him. So, Paul smiled again. It was a happy Christmas.