Santa Claus

Christmas was coming. Mary wanted to have a present, so she wrote a letter to Santa Claus. She really hoped that Santa would make her dream come true.

After Santa Claus saw Mary's letter, they prepared the gifts together happily. Suddenly, he felt hungry. 'Oh! I need to eat dinner. I am starving.' His dinner was delicious, so he ate happily. There was a lot of food on the dining table. There were a turkey and a dish of spaghetti. He got fatter and fatter!

'Let's go to Mary's house and give her the gifts,' said the fat Santa. He sat on the sleigh. He patted on the reindeer's back and asked him to go. After a while, Santa Claus arrived at Mary's house. He jumped down the chimney and dropped the gifts in Mary's house. Santa Claus was shocked because he was stuck in the chimney. He was too fat! 'Help me!' shouted the fat Santa Claus. After a minute, Mary woke up. She was surprised to see Santa Claus stuck in the chimney. Mary pushed him down and he was relieved. He thanked Mary.

'What happened?' said Mary. 'I ate too much junk food before I come here,' said Santa Claus. Finally, Mary taught Santa Claus how to be healthy.

Mary liked her gifts very much.
