

A Fairy Tale

Written by Chan Tsz Yan (5A)

Once upon a time, there was a princess. She was pretty. She had long hair, small eyes and a little mouth. She was shy and kind-hearted, but also she was lonely.

There was a witch who lived in a mysterious forest. She was jealous of the pretty princess and wanted to kill her.

One day, the princess went to the seaside. Out of the blue, she saw a mermaid and a sea monster. They came up to the princess and spoke. "Hello, I am a princess mermaid. Are you a princess too?" asked the mermaid. "Yes, I am", answered the princess. "Can we be friends?" They quickly made friends.

When the princess was going home, she met a handsome prince. But the bad witch was watching her and caught them both. The mermaid and the sea monster saw this, so they rushed to the rescue. They killed the bad witch. The princess married the prince and they lived happily ever after.
