

A Trip to Paris

Written by Wong Ching Huen (5A)

One morning, Lily wanted to go to a far-away place, Paris. She wanted to see the Eiffel Tower. All of a sudden, Lily saw a big cloud. It looked like a bed.

Then, Lily jumped onto a cloud and fell asleep quickly. After a few minutes, Lily woke up in the cloud bed. She found herself in Paris and saw a lot of beautiful views. She felt amazed.

Among other landmarks, Lily saw the Eiffel Tower. It was splendid. Lily was so impressed, she took a lot of beautiful photos.

Finally, Lily felt very sleepy. She fell asleep again. When she woke up, she was in her bed at home. Lily felt these things were absolutely wonderful. Was she only dreaming, or did she really visit Paris on a cloud?

