

The Brown Bunny

Written by Chu Wing Sum (5A)

A small brown bunny peeked out of his burrow one summer afternoon. The bunny was feeling very hungry but there was a fox sitting nearby. 'How can I get by that fox?' he wondered.

'I can dig a cave to escape from the fox,' he thought. First, he needed to sharpen his short fingernails. Then he started digging the cave. But after he dug for a while, his fingernails got hurt. He wanted to give up. But he insisted to dig. He was in pain. He wanted to give up again and he stopped digging. He skipped on the grass. But... he saw the big fox. He was scared. He was regretful but he couldn't run away. The fox ate the brown bunny.

This story teaches us that we should never give up.
