

Homework Horror

Written by Ho Yan Yeung (5A)

Once upon a time, there was a pretty princess Mary. She lived in a huge castle. She studied in Lok Wah Catholic Secondary School from Monday to Friday. Of course, it was the best school for talented princesses.

One day, the princess forgot to bring all the summer holiday homework. Luckily, a handsome prince called Leo appeared in front of Mary. He shook his magic wand. All of a sudden, all the homework appeared in front of Mary. She was absolutely amazed!

For the rest of the school year, they were playing and studying together. They became best friends.

When the princess turned thirty, she married the prince. They lived happily ever after. They had one daughter, princess Angel, who never forgot her homework.

