

Jeri and Great Dane

Written by Law Yuen Ying (5A)

Mother's Day was almost here. Jeri still needed money to buy her mother a gift. Mrs. Brown asked her to walk her huge dog, Great Dane. As Jeri started down the street with the huge dog, they found a one thousand banknote on the ground. Then they took the banknote to the police station.

On the way to the police station, they met a poor beggar. He had no money. So Jeri gave the money to the poor beggar. The beggar thanked Jeri and Great Dane.

After a while, Jeri saw a super pretty fairy on a tall tree. She was waving a magic wand. The fairy looked around looking for something. Jeri kept asking the fairy what she wanted to find. The fairy told Jeri that she wanted to find her wings. Great Dane helped her find her wings and they became good friends.

Jeri loved Great Dane very much because Great Dane was very nice. Finally, Mrs Brown gave Great Dane to Jeri. She also gave some money to Jeri. Jeri and Great Dane were very happy. Jeri bought a bunch of roses to her mum. Her mum was also happy.

