

My Pick-Up Truck

Written by Chen Sui Lam (SA)

'Oh! My pick-up truck has broken down. What can I do now?' The farmer didn't know that he would get unexpected help.

Suddenly, a light appeared in the sky. A fairy appeared. The fairy could fix up the farmer's pick-up truck because she brought four new metal wheels to replace the farmer's old wheels.

The farmer was very thankful to the fairy. He could drive the truck again. The fairy suddenly disappeared.
