

The Stolen Crown – Alternative Ending

Written by Lin Yu Yan Melody (5A)

Lord Kent thought Biff and Chip had stolen the crown. He ordered the guards to throw them in prison.

“No, we promise we will find it!” the children shouted. The prince said, “Give them a chance. I was watching them all the time, I don’t think they stole the crown.”

The children were looking very hard for the crown. Lord Kent looked scared because he was the real thief. He wanted to steal the crown to be king. He hid it under his clothes.

Biff and Chip were worried. “Who is the real thief?” they thought. They looked all over the castle but they didn’t find the crown.

Lord Kent wanted to tidy his clothes. But when he did it, the crown fell out! The prince just walked inside the room. “Oh my dear. I would never have thought you were the real thief, Lord Kent” he said. “I’m so disappointed. Put him in prison forever!” he ordered. Then, he turned to Biff and Chip, “Thanks for your help. Thanks to you, I can be king.”

The key started to glow. Biff and Chip went home safely.

